except that Trustees and members of the Faculty shall always have free access and occasional visitors from abroad will be welcome at any time.

4. Any student who shall enter the alley at any time when it is known that the faculty expect it to be closed, or who shall annoy in any way those who have the legitimate use of it, may thereafter be excluded.

5. Any student inadvertently doing damage either to the room or property will see the necessity of informing the Treasurer at once and settling for the same.

Voted to receive and adopt the report.

Adj. J. H. Ford, Secy.

Dec. 6, 1890.

Dr. Hooker's Study.

The Faculty assembled, and Mr. G. H. Moyers and his son Godfrey being present, an opportunity to speak was given to them both.

Mr. Moyers spoke, Godfrey declined to do so, and the faculty adjourned without action.
